The wedding will be celebrated in Suffolk some time in November, and will be a big society affair.

Miss Etheredge formerly lived in Charlotte, but for the past several years has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. Nathaniel R. Withers, in Suffolk. Mr. Pinner is prominently related throughout Virginia, and is a graduate of the University of Virginia. He visits friends in Richmond very frequently.

Many Confederate soldiers are buried there, and the work of cleaning up the overgrowth and brush is going forward rapidly. She was authorized to order an iron fence for the cemetery, costing $375.

The work is progressing, and the committee have had a great deal of success in the way of subscriptions to complete the work. His father, Captain Winthrop, of the Nineteenth Massachusetts Regiment, served during the late War Between the States.

Alport—Durette.
A very interesting wedding took place yesterday morning, September 12, at half-after 9 o'clock, at the handsome old place of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah D. Durette, in Greene county, when their daughter, Mary Lee, became the bride of Robert R. Alport, a prominent young business man of Richmond. Because of recent bereavement in the family of the groom, the wedding was very quietly celebrated. The presence of a few relatives and intimate friends. Rev. E. F. Burnett performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a handsome blue cloth suit, with gloves of the same shade, and a black picture hat. She was attended by her sister, Miss Dollie Durette, a maid of honor, and Miss Marian Hawkins, of Richmond, as bridesmaids. Fritz Sitterding, Jr., of this city, acted as the groom's best man. Miss Frances Parrott played the wedding march as a professional.

Mr. Alport is a son of the late R. B. Alport, and is well known in business and social circles of the city. The bride has many friends and relatives in Richmond and has made her home here for several years. After a Northern tour Mr. and Mrs. Alport will be at home at 1023 West Grace Street, October 26.

Burglars Attempt to Enter House.
Winchester, Va., September 13.—Burglars, with jimnies, made an unsuccessful attempt to enter the home of John Locke, a wealthy farmer, near Wadesville, last night, presumably to steal money. It being known that Mr. Locke recently sold three large farms, Locke's sudden appearance at a window with a gun frightened the men away. He had only 35 cents in the house, all his money being in the Winchester banks.

MAN SINKS IN QUICKSAND.

Is Rescued by Companions and Will Recover.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Winchester, Va., September 13.—With water running from his mouth, nose, eyes and ears, Clark Wright, of Bruce-town, was dragged out of quicksand in Openan Creek this morning, more dead than alive, but is recovering. He and Howard Boden had gone after horses in pasture, and rather than walk a long distance to bridge, decided to swim the creek. Wright was caught in the quicksand, and sank twice before getting a foothold. Even this gave way, and he sank again, when Boden, risking his own life, swam to the spot and finally dragged his companion ashore. Both were exhausted.

Meetze Lady Meets Success

In Curing Herself of Serious Female Ailments, by the Use of Cardui

Meetze, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green, in a letter from this city, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well."

One day I decided to try some Cardui. It did me so much good that I ordered some more, and it cured me! To-day I feel as well as I ever did in my life.

The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person, in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardui will do for sick women."

Thousands of ladies have written, like Mrs. Green, telling of their really remarkable recovery from various forms of weakness and distress. Cardui brought relief after other remedies had failed to help.

Isn't it likely that you will be helped by Cardui, this remedy that has been in constant successful use for more than half a century? Its record of years of success in relieving troubles such as your own is proof that it will help you, too. Try it.

Indications Point to a Generous Increase in Attendance.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., September 13.—The eighty-eighth session of the University of Virginia will open to-morrow morning. Students are pouring in in larger numbers than ever before at so early a period, and the prospects are for a very generous attendance, with an increase in all departments.

Alfred Alderman, who has been during the summer in Maine, returned to the university Sunday night, and looks to be in splendid health. His family will remain in the North for some weeks yet.

The faculty will be strengthened this session by the presence of a number of new professors—Professor Carroll M. From 1906 to 1909 he was head of the department of history and social sciences in the State Normal School at Farmville. This position he resigned to continue graduate work in economics in the University of Wisconsin, where, in 1909-10, he was a fellow and an assistant in the department of political economy.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Leesburg, Va., September 13.—The Washington District Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, is holding its annual session in Leesburg. This conference is under the direction of the presiding elder of Washington district, Rev. R. J. Prettyman, D. D., of Washington, D. C. Various committees' reports on the progress of church work locally and in the foreign fields are very encouraging. The daily sessions are being held in the Methodist Church at this place, of which Rev. Mr. Waters is pastor.

WOMAN VICTIM OF FATAL ACCIDENT

Either Falls or Is Thrown From Train and Killed.

LEAGUE DIRECTORS TO MEET

Heavy Docket for Court Which Meets Next Week—Other Petersburg News.

Times-Dispatch Bureau.
109 North Sycamore Street
Petersburg, Va., September 13.

A colored woman, the wife of Isaiah Baker (colored), of Dinwiddie county, met with a fatal accident yesterday at the Dinwiddie station of the Seaboard Air Line Railway. The woman had taken her son, who had been bitten by a supposed mad dog, to Richmond for treatment, and was returning home. On alighting from the train she either fell or was thrown and was killed. Her husband, who is employed in this city, was notified of the accident and left for the scene at once.

Meeting of League Directors.
The meeting of the directors of the Virginia Baseball League will be held in the parlors of the Hotel Stratford next Monday instead of to-morrow, and President Williams has given notice of the change of date. Important business will be considered, the report of the secretary of the league will be submitted and contests and protests, if any, will be heard. The formal award of the pennant to Petersburg will be made, and the future of the game in the Virginia League will be discussed.

Return of Tourists.
Mrs. F. T. Meade, Miss Anne Dugger and Miss Leslie Booth, of Petersburg; Miss Sallie Fleetwood, of Waverly; Miss Julia Daniels and Mrs. Sarah McLemurray, of Georgia, who have been touring abroad in company for several months, arrived in New York Monday night on their return home. Mrs. Meade, Miss Dugger and Miss Fleetwood reached the city last night, and Mrs. McLemurray went on through home. Miss Booth and Miss Daniels stopped over in New York to visit friends. Mrs. Meade, formerly of Petersburg, now of New Rochelle. The party was one of most pleasant companionship, and the tour through many countries of Europe was greatly enjoyed and was without mishap.

Interest to Veterans.
General S. H. Bolling, of this city, major-general commanding the Virginia Division, United Confederate Veterans, will this week issue a general order notifying all the camps in the division of the annual meeting of the Grand Camps of Confederate Veterans to be held in Newmarket, October 17-19, and will urge the camps to send full delegations as they are entitled to the grand camps. A. P. Hill Camp will send a good delegation.

Grand Commander Whittle, of the Grand Camp, Confederate Veterans, will appoint a sponsor to represent each congressional district of the State. Miss Collins, of Farmville, will represent the Fourth District.

A Trial for Wife-Murder.
City Sergeant Evans is engaged in summoning jurors, veniremen and witnesses for the term of the Hustings court, which begins next week. As no court has been held since July, the Commonwealth's docket will be quite full one. The most important of the criminal cases will be that of Isaac B. A. and B.

Cooper, who is charged with the murder of his wife, Kizzie Cooper, on the night of August 11. The woman's body was found in the river the following morning. An autopsy showed that she had been killed before touching the water, and developments led directly to the arrest of her husband as the murderer. Cooper is considered a strong candidate for the electric chair.

Inquiring for Husband.
Chief of Police Ragland to-day received a letter from Mrs. B. Hurwitz, of New York, inquiring about her husband, Ben Hurwitz, or Howard, as he sometimes called himself, who, she had heard, had been found insane here and committed to the Williamsburg Hospital. The record shows that on September 3 a stranger was committed to the hospital under the name of Isaac Goldstein. He had come to Petersburg a few days before the receipt of the report, and had suddenly become violently insane. No one could give any information about the unfortunate man, and his wife only heard of his condition through the newspapers. She will be given full information about him.

Death of a Veteran.
James Monroe Rawlings, a respected citizen of Prince George and a Confederate veteran, died yesterday at the residence of his son-in-law, H. T. Belcher, in that county. He was seventy-five years old, and is survived by his wife and several sons and daughters, living in several States.

Silas Francis Sadler, aged thirty-nine years, a citizen of Matoaca, in Chesterfield county, died yesterday afternoon, after a long illness. He leaves a number of relatives.

Good Fox Hunting.
The Dinwiddie Hunt Club has had several successful hunts recently, capturing two or three foxes on each occasion. In a chase last Saturday brushes were taken, one by G. A. Mattison and the other by C. S. Bridgeman. The club has good riders and a fine pack of hounds.

The Riverside Hunt Club will not resume its sports until November, after the farmers have stopped work and laid aside their crops.

Miss Margaret Beale is visiting Wilson, N. C., as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. S. Anderson.

Carson, in Dinwiddie county, on the Prince George line is erecting a fine two-story brick structure for its new bank. It is to have a new $6,000 public school building. A few months ago a handsome new Methodist Church was dedicated there.

George Bosman, son of the Rev. J. T. Bosman, pastor of Market Street Methodist Episcopal Church, a last year graduate of Randolph-Macon College, has accepted a position as teacher in one of the public schools of Farmville.

In the Police Court this morning William Smith (colored) was convicted of larceny. Smith was recently released from the penitentiary on parole for misbehavior. Having violated his parole, he will be returned to the State prison.

The repeated failure of the Board of Aldermen to meet in regular meeting for the transaction of the city's business has caused considerable criticism. Night before last only five of the twelve members could be gotten together, and the same was the case last night.

Governor Mann to Speak.
Governor Mann will be among the speakers at the meeting of the Greater Prince George League to be held at Disputants on September 30. Secretary Martin, of the Petersburg Chamber of Commerce, will probably also speak.

Paul Not on the Stage.
Paul Beattie did not appear in vaudeville on the stage of the Academy of Music to-night. Manager Dean says the proposition to engage Paul was made not to gain publicity, but really to help him in getting employment. Mr. Dean and his wife are connections of Paul, and waited on him when he was married. His object was to help him to a situation that would give him better wages than he could otherwise get.

Captain Stone Drillmaster.
Captain J. H. Stone, retired, Virginia Volunteers, has been appointed drillmaster for the Canton Virginia, Patriarchs Militant, I. O. O. F. Since he has assumed his duties considerable additional interest has been displayed in this branch of Odd Fellows work, which is the highest of that order. Last night there was an unusually large attendance at a meeting which took place in Belvidere Hall. The patriarchs meet each week, alternating Tuesday and Wednesday.

AMUSEMENTS
Academy—At G. Field Minstrels, matinee and night.
Bijou—"School Days," matinee and night.
Still Popular Show.

"Tolly of the Circus" seems to have lost none of its popular appeal. To very good houses Ida St. Leon played yesterday in the pathetic role in which she has been seen several times before here, and the ringside scenes were as effective as ever. The star seems no older, no less winsome, no less natural than when she began the part at sixteen, and the simplicity of her portrayal is her strength.

Joseph Harris, as the minister lover, measured up fully to the standard, while Alfred Trueschel, as the circus proprietor, was vividly realistic. The others of the cast gave adequate support. As usual, the play was well staged and moved with uncommon swiftness. Miss St. Leon had added to her repertoire a wire-walking act, which further illustrates her versatility.

Back to the Old Town To-day.
With flags flying, banners waving and drums beating, Al G. Field and his coronation band arrive with what Mr. Field claims to be the best offering of his career. Twenty-six years have come and gone since the Field organization put forth its claims for public patronage in this city. If Al G. Field can offer our people better amusement than he has served them in years gone by, his prediction must be more than worth while. Yet the veteran claims he has the goods, as his promises have been kept previously, the theatre-goers will accept them.

It is difficult to enumerate the advertised novelties. The merry jingling minstrels offer "Night and Morning," or "Down Where the Cotton Blossoms Grow," with its extravagant scenic surroundings, which seems to claim for itself the cotton pickers, the flower festival, old Black Joe and the Forbes Field setting, are the big features of the spectacular first part, the review, in which members of the company impersonate famous baseball stars, is said to be the most realistic baseball scene ever staged.

Manager Field has three other big productions on the bill, all mounted with special scenery, namely, Aunt Dinah's Quilting Party, with two unique transformations, and a large series of dances which are executed deftly by the company. There's "Commander Walk," with more dancing; a hand organ and a monkey, and a scene from grand opera, "Il Trovatore." Boul Mack, a female impersonator, after the style of Julian Eltinge; Dilworth and Glynn in musical ensembles. Then the big closing number, "Mexico, Oh, Mexico," with soldiers and sailors, ships and songs. Surely this bill should offer something that will please all of Manager Field's innumerable friends. There will be two performances—matinee and night.

"The Soul Kiss."
It has been some time since a musical comedy has achieved greater triumph than "The Soul Kiss." This season an entire new scenic production is promised, while the costuming will be found in an entire new dress. Twenty-five all new musical numbers are introduced during the action of the show, which will be at the Bijou next week.

The music, which is by Maurice Levy, has been considered the most tuneful written in years. The book by Henry B. Smith, contains any number of witty lines, while the story or plot is consistently told in an amusing way. The presenting company is a large one, numbering more than forty people.

Highland Park Mothers' Club.
The following officers were elected Tuesday afternoon at the annual meeting of the Mothers' Club, of the Highland Park High School: President, Mrs. N. B. Miller; Vice-President, Mrs. Lee Miller; Secretary, Mrs. J. Sterling Taylor; Treasurer, Mrs. W. A. Clarke, Jr.; Executive Committee—Mrs. George H. Bahke, Mrs. M. C. Doubles, Mrs. A. G. Quarles.

Armory Entertainment.
The entertainment to be given by the Richmond Hewiters at their armory will begin at 8:30 this evening.

Fredericksburg College Opens.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., September 13.—Fredericksburg College opened Wednesday with possibly the largest enrollment of students since its institution. The prospects for a successful session are very bright. The athletic department will be well represented, a number of former students having entered for the coming season.
